1. Title

Privacy Policy

2. Policy Statement

Myli – My Community Library Ltd (ABN 92 653 088 610) (Myli) is committed to the responsible management of personal information. We do this by following the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs). Myli is also guided by our core values including relationships, excellence and bravery. Our Privacy Policy follows both the law and our values. We manage personal information openly, transparently, and follow the rules (APPs) when collecting, storing, using, and sharing personal information.

3. Purpose

This policy explains how Myli follows the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) found in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). It shows how we are open and transparent in managing personal information, as required by APP 1.

4. Scope

This policy covers how and why we collect, store and use email addresses and other personal information. Myli will only collect, store, use, disclose and delete your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988.

The Privacy Act 1988 has a set of rules called the Australian Privacy Principles that tell organisations how they can collect and use personal information. Our privacy policy explains how Myli follows these rules.

5. Policy Details

At Myli, we promise to give you the best services, and this policy tells you how we take care of your Personal Information. This policy is one way we follow the rules of the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs). These rules help us responsibly collect and handle your Personal Information.

5.1. Collection of Information

i. Personal Information

Personal Information is details or an opinion that can identify them. Examples of personal information can include name, email address, gender, age, financial and bank account details, opinions, education, and photos and videos that can be linked to an identifiable living person. It can also include date of birth, residential or postal address and postcodes.

Myli collects personal information in different ways such as when you register for membership, book programs or events, fill out surveys, have interviews, send us messages by phone, fax, or email, use our website, or from publicly available sources. We may also get information from cookies or CCTV and from third parties..

Myli makes every reasonable effort to work with third parties who have good privacy practices. We only collect the personal information we really need to deliver library services, and we do it in a fair and reasonable way. When we collect Personal Information we will, where appropriate and where possible, explain to you why we are collecting the information and how we plan to use it.

When you become a member of the library, we ask you to show identification and fill out a membership form. If you are a minor, a person who can act as a guarantor will provide the information.

ii. Sensitive Information

Sensitive information, as defined in the Privacy Act 1988, includes details or opinions about things like a person's race, political views, religious beliefs, criminal record, or health.

At Myli, we will only use sensitive information:

- For the main reason we collected it.
- For a related reason that connects to the main reason.
- With your permission.
- When the law says we must.

Myli will not collect sensitive information unless the person agrees or the law asks or allows us to do so.

iii. Third Parties

We will try to collect your Personal Information directly from you whenever it's possible and makes sense. However, sometimes we might get information from other people or companies. If that happens, we will do our best to let you know that we have received information from them. If we collect personal information about you from someone else, we will also make sure to let you know about it.

5.2. Use and Disclosure of Information

Myli will not share or tell others about an individual's information unless:

- The individual agrees to it.
- The law says we must share it.
- There is a serious and urgent risk to someone's life, health, or safety.
- We suspect someone is doing something illegal.
- Myli won't give information about library members to a commercial third party, except for a debt collection agency trying to recover debts for Myli.

Only library staff can access a member's personal record, and only for library-related tasks.

If we have to share your information because the law or a court order requires us to, we will keep a record of it.

Any communication from Myli will have our address, phone number, and email.

We won't share, sell, or tell others your Personal Information, except as explained in this Privacy Policy.

If we collect Personal Information from competitions or surveys, it's only for promoting or improving library services and programs for Myli. We won't share, sell, or tell others your Personal Information, except as explained in this Privacy Policy. Once we analyse the collected information, we will destroy any hard copies or delete any files that contain any Personal Information. We may keep original survey responses, that are used to compare performance over time.

The information we collect from competitions or surveys may be used for the specific competition, survey, or program it's related to. We may also use it for reporting and promoting that particular report, service, or program. For example, we might quote your answers in a report or promotion, but we won't use your name or any other information that could identify you without your permission.

5.3. Data Quality

Myli wants to make sure that the Personal Information we collect, use, or share is accurate and up-to-date. If you are a member and need help updating your details, you can contact your local library branch or reach out to the Myli support centre or live chat on myli.org.au. You can also update your Personal Information by logging into your library account online or using our app.

A library membership record includes your name, address, phone number(s), and date of birth. For kids, we also have their parent or guardian's details. It also shows what library items you have borrowed, any fines or lost/damaged items, printing balances and any reservations you have made.

You can make online to update your printer balance and pay fines or lost/damaged books through a secure payment gateway. We don't keep any of your credit or debit card details. Your payment information is processed safely through the payment gateways provided by NAB and PayPal, so your financial information is secure.

Your membership is valid for three years. If you don't use your Library card for three years, your membership will expire. We regularly delete inactive records every month, but we won't delete any memberships that have outstanding debts like charges for lost/damaged items.

When you fill out a membership form, we put the information into our computer database and then destroy the form.

It's essential for us to have accurate information about you. We'll do our best to keep your information correct and up-to-date. If you find that any information we have is wrong or not current, please let us know so we can fix it and continue providing good services to you.

5.4. Data Security

Myli protects your Personal Information by taking reasonable steps to make sure it is not misused, lost, accessed by unauthorised people, or changed without permission. If we no longer need your Personal Information, we will either destroy it or remove any details that could identify you.

Most of the Personal Information is stored in membership records, and we will keep them for at least three years.

Our computer systems are protected to make sure your Personal Information is not seen by unauthorised individuals. We have policies and physical safeguards in place to keep your Personal Information secure. We also have backup and recovery systems to prevent any loss of your Personal Information.

5.5. Openness

5.6. You can ask for a copy of this Privacy Policy, and we'll give it to you. If you want to know more about what kind of Personal Information we have and why we collect, use, or share it, you can ask us. Access and Correction

If Myli has your Personal Information, you can ask to see it, and we will show it to you unless:

- The request is not serious or is meant to cause trouble.
- Showing the information would hurt the privacy of other people.
- The law says we can't give you access to it.
- The information is related to a legal matter between you and Myli.

As a library member, you can check your computer record anytime by showing your library card or suitable identification. If you are a parent or guardian of a minor, you can see their record if you have signed as their guarantor.

Home Delivery volunteers are only given any medical and Personal Information they need to select items and provide service to clients.

We expect to provide you with the requested Personal Information or explain the reason for not giving access within 45 days of receiving your request.

5.7. Unique Identifiers

Myli gives every Library member a special barcode to help with library activities. We won't use or collect any government identifiers like Medicare or Tax File Numbers to identify anyone.

5.8. Anonymity

If it's allowed and possible, Members can choose to keep their identity private while interacting with Myli.

5.9. Transborder Data Flows

Myli usually stores survey responses and Personal Information in its databases in Australia. We will keep this information following the rules of the Privacy Act 1988.

5.10. Offshore storage

Myli might use tools like SurveyMonkey or Google Analytics to gather and analyse survey data and statistics. This information is securely transmitted and stored on servers located outside the country. Myli follows this Privacy Policy and Terms of Use when accessing the information.

5.11. Statistical Information

Myli uses some membership information for statistics. This helps us plan and improve library services to meet people's needs better. We don't use names or addresses of individuals in this statistical data.
